County Council Hires Two New Hearing Examiners

Ellicott City, MD – Today, the Howard County Council announced that Joyce Nichols and Katherine Taylor will serve as the new Board of Appeals Hearing Examiners. Each will conduct quasi-judicial hearings on assigned cases involving complex land use matters and regulatory compliance issues within the jurisdiction of the Howard County Board of Appeals.

Joyce Nichols brings over 20 years of professional zoning hearing examiner experience to Howard County. Katherine Taylor returns to serving Howard County government where she previously was employed as a Senior Assistant County Solicitor in the Office of Law.
